"To live, learn and love with Jesus, being the best we can be"

Principal's Report

Tena koutou katoa. A kia noho te Ariki ki a koutou.

This weekend we celebrate one of the great Feasts of the Christian church; Pentecost. The powerful love of the God we cannot see is alive and active in our lives through the presence of His Spirit. We can be immersed in this love in all the circumstances of our lives - if only we have the eyes to see.

This week we extend a very warm welcome to two new students; Ava Moore, daughter of Nick and Kirsty and sister of Leto and Tommy Carter, son of Amy and Justin and brother of Toby and Charlie. We hope you settle quickly into school life and that you love being at St Theresa's.

May you be blessed in this season of Pentecost.

May you recognise the power of the Spirit of God in your life and simply respond.

God Bless,
Fita Smith,
Principal

... and the rain kept falling!

Many thanks to all our parents for their patience, help, common sense and understanding during the two really wet days last week. How fortunate we were to not have suffered any damage or loss - only a few nervous moments going around the roundabout!

Heads up re Matariki: Since this is Production year, we will celebrate Matariki within our classes rather than hold the major community event of the past two years. Production will be held in odd years and Matariki in even years.

Pizza orders

Don't forget that all orders from last week will be carried over to tomorrow!

Class of the Week - Room 10

This week, as part of our theme of Remembrance, Room 9 and 10 went to Te Papa to the exhibition, Gallipoli: The Scale of our War. Adults, it is certainly a must-see when visiting Te Papa, suitable for Year 5 upwards. This week we have been writing letters to persuade people to visit the exhibition. Here is an example.

“Have you ever wondered what it’s like to deal with the horrible disasters as a soldier? Well, if you come to the Gallipoli War Exhibition at Te Papa you will certainly find out.....” By Josh Mzila.

This week, Assembly is presented by Room 7.

Lost property: Stella Smith's named jersey. She's in Room 1.

REMIX: Fun night out! Come along and bring your friends to a fun filled evening of bowling! Friday, 29th of May, 7.00pm at Strike Bowling Porirua. It would be awesome to see heaps of you there! Further details will be in next week's newsletter. To ensure we book enough lanes, please register your interest by emailing Sinead. slksmile@hotmail.com
