Gospel Value Term 2 FORGIVENESS & RECONCILIATION

Tena koutou katoa. A kia noho te Ariki ki a koutou.

Like a tiny seed, if we live as Jesus invites us to, our lives will bear much fruit. The love and courage we need for this comes from the personal relationship we have with Jesus. I invite you reflect on this.

I have put up on Facebook, a link to a wonderful talk by educational expert Sir Ken Robinson, who makes an entertaining and profoundly moving case for creating an education system that nurtures (rather than undermines) creativity. He questions the current education systems around the world and puts out the challenge to put the same value on creativity as is placed on the "high stakes" subject areas on which a child's ability is currently judged. I urge you to take 20 minutes to hear what he has to say. This is the future of education!

Remember to complete the online survey on Pastoral Care. Each completed survey gains 100 House Points for your child(ren)'s House!

God Bless,

THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL

Mark 4: 26-34

"To what shall we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable can we use for it?

It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth.

But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the sky can dwell in its shade."

Class of the Week - Room 9

Reported by Mark Tyrell & Hazel Livesey
Room 9 has been thinking about asking quality questions so that we can learn new things about WW1. We are also practising for the Scripture Reading Competition. One of us will represent our school next week. All of us are hoping to get that spot so it's going to be a tough competition! Lots of students from Room 9 went to the Jubilee celebrations. We all loved the ice creams and having fun together. We finished with a haka and everyone enjoyed it. Have a great weekend.

You up for something tricky?

Two girls were born to the same mother, on the same day, at the same time, in the same month and year and yet they're not twins. How can this be? Email Gina if you haven't worked it out and you want the answer!

Flowers, cards, morning tea - all this from the Teaching Staff and children to acknowledge the Support Staff at our School. Even Barney got a look in - and the biggest cheer!
